

2026 Hawaii Cardiovascular Symposium

|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                    |                                                           |                                           |                                                  |                                                                                |                                                                                                                                  |                                             |                                      |                                      |                          |
|-------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| Cardiometabolics, Kidneys, Blood Pressure, and Lipids | Wed Oct 21st, 2026                                                                                                                               | 10:00-12:30                                                        | Registration and Exhibits                                 | Foyer / Kuilima Ballroom                  | Electrophysiology Summit                         | 6:30-7:30 AM                                                                   | Breakfast and Exhibits                                                                                                           | Foyer / Kuilima Ballroom                    |                                      |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | 12:00-1:00 PM                                                      | Product Theater                                           | O'ahu Room                                |                                                  | 6:30 - 7:30 AM                                                                 | Product Theater - BRISTOL MYERS SQUIBB                                                                                           | O'ahu Room                                  |                                      |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | Extinguishing the Embers of Atherosclerosis – R. Wright, Moderator |                                                           |                                           |                                                  |                                                                                | 7:30-7:35 AM                                                                                                                     | Aloha and Introductory Remarks              |                                      | Stephen Tang, MDSaarik Gupta, MD |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | 1:00-1:05 PM                                                       | Aloha and Introductory Remarks                            | Richard Wright, MDJohn Gordon, MD     |                                                  | 7:35-7:55 AM                                                                   | SVT's: Diagnosis and Management of The Forgotten Arrhythmias                                                                     |                                             | Edward Chu, MD                       |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | 1:05- 1:25 PM                                                      | Treating Hypertension at the Source: A New Dawn           | Florian Rader, MD                         |                                                  | 7:55-8:15 AM                                                                   | Conduction System Pacing – The ONLY Way to Pace                                                                                  |                                             | Saarik Gupta, MD                     |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | 1:25-1:45 PM                                                       | Renal Artery Ablation: Niche, or Valuable Treatment?      | Michael Broukhim, MD                      |                                                  | 8:15-8:35 AM                                                                   | Leadless Pacemakers: Are We Helping Patients?                                                                                    |                                             | Stephen Tang, MD                     |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | 1:45-2:05 PM                                                       | LDL Reduction: The Good Without The Bad or Ugly           | Christiane Schaeffler, MD                 |                                                  | 8:35-8:55 AM                                                                   | Transvenous No More, Extravascular ICD's Are Here                                                                                |                                             | Edward Chu, MD                       |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | 2:05-2:25 PM                                                       | Ready, Load, Inject: Lipoprotein(a) Reduction             | Devin Kehl, MD                            |                                                  | 8:55-9:15 AM                                                                   | Antiarrhythmic Drugs: A Thing of the Past?                                                                                       |                                             | Saarik Gupta, MD                     |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | 2:25-2:45 PM                                                       | The Inflammasome: Attacking The Third Leg                 | Rigved Tadwalkar, MD                      |                                                  | 9:15-9:45 AM                                                                   | What is New in Atrial Fibrillation Management?                                                                                   |                                             | Shephal Doshi, MD (Virtual)          |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | 2:45-3:15 PM                                                       | Faculty Roundtable                                        | All                                       |                                                  | 9:45-10:15 AM                                                                  | Break and Exhibit Networking                                                                                                     |                                             | Foyer / Kuilima Ballroom             |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | 3:15-3:45 PM                                                       | Break and Exhibit Networking                              | Foyer / Kuilima Ballroom                  |                                                  | 10:15-10:35 AM                                                                 | Building an LAA Closure Practice and the Role of Intracardiac Echo: The Hawaii Experience                                        |                                             | Rayji Tsutsui, MD                    |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | Extinguishing the Flames of Atherosclerosis – R. Wright, Moderator |                                                           |                                           |                                                  |                                                                                | 10:35-10:55 AM                                                                                                                   | Exploring the Role of Cardioneural Ablation |                                      | Jasen Gilge, MD                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | 3:45-4:05 PM                                                       | Bariatric Surgery is Underutilized                        | C Noel Bairey-Merz, MD                    |                                                  | 10:55-11:15 AM                                                                 | Management of Ventricular Arrhythmias                                                                                            |                                             | Jasen Gilge, MD                      |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | 4:05-4:25 PM                                                       | Incretin-Targeting Should Be A Core Therapy in CV Disease | Sheldon Litwin, MD                        |                                                  | 11:15-11:35 AM                                                                 | Ambulatory Surgery Centers: The Future of EP Care?                                                                               |                                             | Arash Aryana, MD (Virtual)           |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | 4:25-4:45 PM                                                       | The Canary in the Mine: Kidneys and Albuminuria           | Ty Gluckman, MD                           |                                                  | 11:35-12:05 PM                                                                 | Interesting Cases                                                                                                                |                                             | Stephen Tang, MDSaarik Gupta, MD |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | 4:45-5:05 PM                                                       | SGLT-inhibition and CV Event Reduction                    | Matt Budoff, MD                           |                                                  | 12:30-1:30 PM                                                                  | Product Theater - ASTRAZENACA: New Data on ATTR-CM for Health Care Providers From CARDIO-TTTransformSpeaker: Dr. Marcus Urey |                                             | O'ahu Room                           |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | 5:05-5:30 PM                                                       | Faculty Roundtable                                        | All                                       |                                                  | 5:30-7:00 PM                                                                   | Product Theater - KINIKSA Speaker: Dr. John Ryan                                                                                 |                                             | O'ahu Room                           |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | 5:45-7:45 PM                                                       | Welcome Reception                                         | Kuilima Point                             |                                                  | 6:30-7:30 AM                                                                   | Product Theater - ALNYLAM                                                                                                        |                                             | O'ahu Room                           |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  | Interventional & Structural Summit                                 | Thur Oct 22nd, 2026                                       | 7:00-8:00 AM                              |                                                  | Product Theater - REGENERON                                                    | O'ahu Room                                                                                                                       | The Heart Failure Symposium                 | 6:30-7:30 AM                         | Breakfast and Exhibits               | Foyer / Kuilima Ballroom |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                    |                                                           | 7:00-8:00 AM                              |                                                  | Breakfast and Exhibits                                                         | Foyer / Kuilima Ballroom                                                                                                         |                                             | 7:30-7:35 AM                         | Aloha and Introductory Remarks       | Richard Wright, MD       |
| 8:00-8:05 AM                                          | Aloha and Introductory Remarks                                                                                                                   |                                                                    |                                                           | John Gordon, MD                           | The Weak Heart – R. Wright, Moderator            |                                                                                |                                                                                                                                  |                                             |                                      |                                      |                          |
| 8:05-8:45 AM                                          | Debate: High-Risk PCI: When (or if) to Support and How?                                                                                          |                                                                    |                                                           | Mitul Patel, MDBrian Kolski, MD       | 7:35-7:55 AM                                     | A Revolution in Heart Failure Imaging: AI and POCUS                            |                                                                                                                                  |                                             | Christiane Schaeffler, MD            |                                      |                          |
| 8:45-9:25 AM                                          | Debate: Carotid Intervention in 2026: Evidence, Equipoise, and Outcomes                                                                          |                                                                    |                                                           | Ken Rosenfield, MDRobert Adamson, MD  | 7:55-8:15 AM                                     | Outpatient Hemodynamic Monitoring in HF                                        |                                                                                                                                  |                                             | Jim Mudd, MD                         |                                      |                          |
| 9:25-9:45 AM                                          | Options For the No-Option Patient: Novel Treatments for Refractory Angina                                                                        |                                                                    |                                                           | Tim Henry, MD                             | 8:15-8:35 AM                                     | The KISS Principle of HF Therapy: The Four Pillars                             |                                                                                                                                  |                                             | John Ryan, MD                        |                                      |                          |
| 9:45-10:25 AM                                         | Break and Exhibit Networking                                                                                                                     |                                                                    |                                                           | Foyer / Kuilima Ballroom                  | 8:35-8:55 AM                                     | HF Pillar-ettes Add Value and are Underutilized                                |                                                                                                                                  |                                             | Richard Wright, MD                   |                                      |                          |
| 10:25-10:55 AM                                        | Improving Cardiovascular Quality - You Can't Manage What You Don't Measure                                                                       |                                                                    |                                                           | Ralph Brindis, MD                         | 8:55-9:15 AM                                     | Faculty Roundtable                                                             |                                                                                                                                  |                                             | All                                  |                                      |                          |
| 10:55-11:35 AM                                        | Debate: Mitral Intervention at a Crossroads: Evidence, Expertise, and Evolution                                                                  |                                                                    |                                                           | Christian Spies, MDRobert Adamson, MD | 9:15-9:45 AM                                     | Break and Exhibit Networking                                                   |                                                                                                                                  |                                             |                                      |                                      |                          |
| 11:35-12:00 PM                                        | Faculty Roundtable                                                                                                                               |                                                                    |                                                           | All                                       | HFPeF and The Thick Heart – R. Wright, Moderator |                                                                                |                                                                                                                                  |                                             |                                      |                                      |                          |
| 12:15-1:15 PM                                         | Product Theater - CYTOKINETICS: Introducing MYQORZOTM (aficamten): A New Option for Patients With Obstructive Hypertrophic Cardiomyopathy (aHCM) |                                                                    |                                                           | O'ahu Room                                | 9:45-10:05 AM                                    | Hypertrophic Cardiomyopathy: Goodbye Beta Blocker, Hello Myosin Inhibitor      |                                                                                                                                  |                                             | Florian Rader, MD                    |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                    |                                                           |                                           | 10:05-10:25 AM                                   | Hypertrophic Cardiomyopathy: Does Myosin Inhibition Alter Disease Progression? |                                                                                                                                  |                                             | Rola Khedraki, MD                    |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                    |                                                           |                                           | 10:25-10:45 AM                                   | TTR Amyloidosis – Advances in Diagnosis and Therapy                            |                                                                                                                                  |                                             | Sarah Cuddy, MD                      |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                    |                                                           |                                           | 10:45-11:05 AM                                   | TTR Amyloidosis – A Role for Combination Therapy?                              |                                                                                                                                  |                                             | Richard Wright, MD                   |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                    |                                                           |                                           | 11:05-11:30 AM                                   | Incretin Therapies in Adipose-Related Heart Failure                            |                                                                                                                                  |                                             | Sheldon Litwin, MD                   |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                    |                                                           |                                           | 11:30-11:55 PM                                   | Faculty Roundtable                                                             |                                                                                                                                  |                                             | All                                  |                                      |                          |
|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                    |                                                           |                                           | 11:55-12:00 PM                                   | Closing Comments                                                               |                                                                                                                                  | Richard Wright, MDJohn Gordon, MD       |                                      |                                      |                          |

